

Unsigned Players Will Be Cast Adrift If War Is Declared—Armory Heads Divided Over O'Ryan's Order

ULTIMATUM ISSUED TO BALL PLAYERS

War Warning Announced by Toner May Bring "Strikers" to Terms.

MUST TAKE CUT OR QUIT

Major Leagues to Meet in This City Next Week—Maisei to Join Yank Recruits.

By FREDERICK G. LIES.

President John K. Toner of the National League yesterday issued a war warning to striking ball players. The warning amounts practically to an ultimatum. Toner's league has informed the ball players they had better come into the fold now at the figures written in their contracts, or they will come in at greatly reduced salaries—if at all.

"Our club owners have ceased to worry about this strike situation for two very good reasons," said Toner. "First, the bottom seems to have fallen out of the strike, and second, a club owner during these perilous times is very fortunate to get a player who is a heavy salary man under contract. This strike may yet prove to be a blessing to the men who have their money in the game."

The major leagues have not yet taken any official action on players refusing to sign contracts, but I can tell you what our club owners will do in the event of a very marked reduction of the salary limit will be one of the first steps to be taken. That would mean a cut to eighteen—or even sixteen players.

FOLWELL TO COACH PENN SQUAD AGAIN

Faculty Committee Reappoints Popular Mentor Following Petition of Alumni.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—Complete vindication of his coaching methods was had by Robert C. Folwell to-day when the faculty committee of the University of Pennsylvania reappointed him for next year. There is one clause in the contract, however, which makes it possible for Penn to abrogate the paper. The clause does not reflect upon the ability of Folwell, but makes it possible for Penn to cut down expenses should America go to war with any other country.

This is the first time in the history of Penn's athletics that such a clause has been inserted in a coaching contract. The uncertainty of war prompted the faculty athletic committee to make this exception. The clause states that the agreement will be void in the event of active service in the United States and any other nation.

The reappointment of Folwell follows a campaign of popularity which found students, alumni and sportsmen voting for him. The Pennsylvania State Legislature lined up with Folwell and against the faculty committee, which announced two weeks ago that Folwell would not be retained.

"Players Must Come to Terms."

"It behooves players to wake up to the times we now are going through. There is no question that if a player signs a contract while the strike is on, he is helping the club to keep its players up to it, but in the case of a quiet declaration of war finds him unneeded he may find himself out in the cold. I repeat what I said some time ago, that our league may be more fortunate than the American League in view of the fact that it has less players signed to big contracts."

NO BACKDOWN, SAYS FULTZ

"The Toner statement is in line with the action taken by various National League club owners before the latest war cloud appeared upon the sky. Toner of Chicago was the first to announce the time limit. As for me, I am a player of Philadelphia and other club owners have adopted similar steps. I refused to comment on Toner's statement other than to say that the league's position is unchanged. Discussion of the matter is, however, a short time ago, Fultz said, "If they want to fight, let them fight. I will not be frightened as easily as he did at one time."

SETON HALL FIVE WINS.

Both major leagues will hold their scheduled meetings next week, when the plans outlined by Toner will be adopted by both leagues. The International League and the American League club owners will meet here, and they likely will take similar action. The National Commission will likely be held here, and a meeting of the rules committee whenever it is convenient.

MAISEI TO TRAIN EARLY.

"Though only the pitchers and catchers were ordered with the first detachment of Yankees to report in March, February 10, the veteran daily is getting more ready. Maisei is expected to report with the first detachment, and Donovan now has invited Frank Baker and Frank Hill to join the early squad. Wild Bill was a time limit gradually to work themselves in condition. He wants all of his leading crumples, Baker, Hill and Gilchrist, to start work very early, and do no intensive training until they have thoroughly tested the limbs which were injured last season."

NORWICH TO PLAY FORDHAM.

Catholic University yesterday sent word to Fordham's football management that the Southern gridirers will not be able to meet Fordham's eleven next Saturday at Fordham Field as a result of the local institution. As a result Fordham yesterday completed arrangements with Norwich, the game to be played on October 13. Norwich last played Fordham four years ago.

PITT FIVE BEATS RUTGERS.

Tossers Engage in Keen Tussle at New Brunswick—Score, 22 to 21.

New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 7.—Pittsburg's new defeated Rutgers in basketball tonight by a score of 22 to 21. At one time during the fast and brilliant game there was a difference of more than three points in the score. At the end of the first half the score stood 11 to 9 in Rutgers' favor. Hastings started for Rutgers and Miller and Whittens for Pittsburg.

TWO MORE RED SOX SIGN.

Boston, Feb. 7.—Herbert J. Pennick, a pitcher, and Frank Johnson, an outfielder, were signed by the Boston Red Sox today. The team was secured last night by the Red Sox from the club of the Georgia Southern League.

ATHLETIC MEETS IN BROOKLYN ARMORIES

Commanders Act Through Discretionary Powers—N. Y. A. C. Gets Garden.

22D AND 71ST CLOSED

Taking advantage of the discretionary powers Major-General O'Ryan bestowed on the commanders of the various regiments in regard to holding athletic meets in the State armories, the colonels of the Brooklyn regiments are commanding officers of that brigade, announced yesterday that they will not cancel the meets already scheduled.

Col. John F. O'Ryan, who is commanding officer of the 22d Regiment, announced yesterday that they will not cancel the meets already scheduled. Col. O'Ryan said that all the regiments in his brigade were taking precautionary measures to safeguard their property and that the colonels will see to it that no harm is done if the public is admitted to the various buildings.

In Manhattan the conditions are different and few if any meets will be held here. Col. Cornelius Vanderbilt of the 22d Regiment has cancelled more than a dozen meets scheduled to be held in the 16th street armory. The 22d Regiment also has cancelled its doors to all except its members.

Col. Vanderbilt said that he did not want to shoulder the responsibility of permitting public gatherings in his outfit, and as Major-General O'Ryan has placed the matter entirely in his hands Col. Vanderbilt decided to bar the public entirely.

As a result of Col. Vanderbilt's order the New York Athletic Club, which was to have held its meet in the 22d Regiment armory last Saturday night, has transferred its games to Madison Square Garden. They will be held in the big auditorium on Tuesday night, Feb. 13, and on Matt Hagan, who have charge of the meet, said last night that every athlete entered will compete on Tuesday.

This clause does not reflect upon the ability of Folwell, but makes it possible for Penn to cut down expenses should America go to war with any other country.

64 TENNIS PLAYERS IN TITLE TOURNEY

National Indoor Competition Finds Many Stars Drawn for Play.

Drawings for the national indoor tennis championship to begin at the Seventh Regiment Armory Saturday were made yesterday. Sixty-four entries were received, but it is doubtful if all will be able to take part. R. Lindley Murray, present champion, sent in his entry, but it may be that his business in the northern part of the State will prevent his attendance.

Among the more prominent players who will compete are Watson M. Washburn, Dean Mathey, Dr. William Rosenbaum, Clifford H. Reid, Theodore R. Pell, George S. Steward, Kenneth C. King, King Smith and Abner H. Han. Jr.

The third quarter of the draw finds the greater strength of the tournament in the first round. The first round will be played on Saturday afternoon, and the competition will be held as scheduled and victory will be welcomed. The full draw follows:

STEIN HIGH GUN AT NEW ROCHELLE TRAPS

Returns Best Score in Clay Bird Tourney—Beats Thompson.

Twenty-two gunners reported to the New Rochelle traps yesterday to compete in the annual clay target bird trap shooting tourney. A much larger representation was expected, but difficulty in gaining access to Harrison Island, and due to the fact that blocked the entrance to the traps, only twenty-two gunners were able to compete.

The winner of the high score prize was Conrad Stein. His score of 98 led the list. The second prize was won by E. J. Thompson, who scored 94. The third prize was won by E. J. Thompson, who scored 94.
